The circular was sent out to members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Order of Railway Conductors and Switchmen's Union of North America.

The circular is signed by Warren S. Stone, president of the engineers; W. S. Carter, president of the engineers; W. S. Carter, president of the five chief executives here last Saturday, following their return from Chicago.

The threatened strike was called off,

The threatened strike was called off, the memorandum asserts, when it became known that unless that action was taken not only the executive officers of the brotherhoods but the general chairman and local chairmen would be arrested on charges of conspiracy.

"Due to the memorandum of the Labor Board (asserting that working rules and disputes would be disposed of before any further wage reductions were considered) and the further fact of the imminent arrests of the leaders, it was deemed best that the strike becalled off," says the circular.

"We think you can readily understand what the effect would be if a strike were put on and all the executive officers, general chairmen and local chairmen were arrested and no one left to direct the movements of the men nor to advise them," the circular reads.

"It may be claimed by some that the promise made by the Labor Board will not be carried out," the circular continues, "due to coercive influences, and, in case this should come to pass, we would be in exactly the same position that we were in after the enactment of the Adamson law in 1916, and the atrike vote which is called off at the present time will be revived and used, if necessary."

The Railroad Labor Board made no promises officially to the train against the said that their names will be given the newspapers for publication, together with statements of the cent cut to dealers was made by J. J. Fitzpatrick, sales manager of the Borden company. He said that the decrease was

Milk Supply Nears Normal; Many Raids (Centinued from page one) Company, to stop the profiteering in milk which has been indulged in since the strike started by unscrupulous deal Milk Supply followed by an automobile filled with gangsters who had been keeping the station under surveillance. Seeing them behind her, she drove her machine along the Concourse in a mad race to get away from her pursuers. But the latter overtook her at a point near the drug store. One of the band leaped to the running board of her car and, with threats and abusive language, forced her to halt. Then, pushing her roughly aside, the men seized the two cans. They wantonly spilled the contents of one of them all over the seats and floor of the car. The other was dumped in the street.

The Railroad Labor Board made no promises officially to the train service employees, and did not figure in any official capacity in the decision to call off the threatened rail strike last week, it was pointed out to-day by board members when they heard of the circular being sent to brotherhood members concerning a possible revival of the strike vote.

A resolution adopted by the board which would place further wage reduction requests by the roads at the end of the docket undoubtedly played a part in the labor chiefs' determination, it was pointed out, but no promise of delay in acting on such requests was made. Board members declined to comment on the brotherhood's memorandum.

TIFE owes us all something—if we've protected our investment. Many of us try to go on collecting from life without protecting our investment. And we can't. And there's trouble—and disappointment.

What's become of those mornings when it was great to be alive, and every sense thrilled to the inspiration of health and energy and ambition? It was easy to collect from life then. Is it so easy now? Probably life is just the same—and it's ourselves that have changed.

Let's think: Have we protected our investment? Health was the big thing. Sound body and nerves -eat well, sleep well, play well, work well. That was the life. What's become of it? What is becoming of it—now?

Protecting or neglecting? It's very important to know-and in time.

What about coffee and tea day after day? Let's look at the facts: Caffeine in coffee and thein in tea are drugs-well-known drugs with a well-known effect. Useful, perhaps, when a doctor prescribes them. They whip up the

That may be all right-sometimes. But it may be all wrong all the time. In a great many cases it is all wrong; disturbing to health, as your doctor can tell you-robbing nights of sleep and days of efficiency, harming digestion, bringing headaches and high blood pressure—laying the grounds for serious trouble.

And the fact that the harm comes slowly and may not be noticed for a long time is all the more reason why it pays to be on guardwhy it does not pay to take the risk.

Really, then, can you collect what's coming to you from life-the zest, the accomplishment, the "feel" and enjoyment-and trifle with your investment in health?

There's no sacrifice in safety from coffee and tea dangers-not a bit. Postum furnishes the way.

Postum is a pure cereal beverage, rich; comforting and satisfying, deep brown in color, with a coffee-like tang and a flavor which makes you say, "How good it tastes!" Don't think you will miss anything when you change from coffee or tea to Postum. You gain! Ask the Postum users. They know. And they're mighty free to tell you. Postum has been serving human need for a quarter of a century. It has been a worldwide table-drink these many years—the number of its users growing daily. Postum is sold and served wherever good food and drink are sold and served. And Postum is the mealtime beverage of folks who have decided to come up and keep up where they belong-purposeful, wide-awake, healthy and happy folks who believe it's better to be safe than sorry-particularly when it's more pleasant and agreeable being safe.

If you don't happen to be a Postum user yet, -wouldn't it be better for you to be out on the sunrise road, going up and keeping up, and staying away from the shadows where so many have found trouble and discouragement?

We can't ask life to be fair with us, you know-unless we're fair with ourselves. And daily drugging of the nervous system is not being fair with ourselves-especially when we know the facts as so many physicians have pointed them out.

POSTUM comes in two forms; INSTANT POSTUM (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. POSTUM CEREAL (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepated) made by

And it's worth as much to keep health as it is to get it back

Order Postum from your grocer today. Enjoy its satisfying flavor. Keep to Postum instead of coffee or tea for ten days and learn the difference in "feel." Let the members of the family share the delights of Postum as a hot mealtime beverage—and remember, there's no danger-line around Postum for the children, as there is around coffee or tea. There's no harm in Postum for anybody.
